

Morris concerns before the grand jury in 1905, in an effort to stimulate the failing memories of the witnesses.

There were rumors of prosecutions for perjury, which plainly disturbed the packers, and caused the employes themselves to turn exceedingly white about the gills.

BRITISH BARON FINDS A $2,000,000 BRIDE IN ENGLAND; HE'S RICH, TOO

Miss Margherita Van Raalte and Lord Howard De Walden.

London, Jan. 12.—Another British lord is going to marry an heiress—but for once he is finding her in his native country and not in America.

Lord Howard de Walden (eighth Baron de Walden and
